

MNN GUERRILLA FILMMAKING SERIES

UPROOTED (2006) ::: Dir. Donia Mili Wednesday : December 13th : 7 pm

This gripping, highly original film, delves into the nature of resistance, as lived daily by millions of Palestinians. Recorded in occupied Palestine, UPROOTED explores questions and forms of resistance witnessed and experienced in this permanent war zone. The film attempts to answer the question of what constitutes resistance, and examines the tendency prevalent in the post 9/11 world to classify all resistance as terrorism. Featuring a hauntingly honest narration and striking imagery, the film is the work of self-proclaimed guerrilla filmmaker, Donia Mili, who took up a camera for the first time in order to tell this important story.

Join the Director for a Q & A after the film.

MNN'S OPEN STUDIO
537 W. 59th Street

between 10th and 11th avenues
Trains: 9/A/C/B/D to Columbus Circle
N/R/Q/W to 57th Street

FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Please RSVP to promo@mnn.org

Manhattan Neighborhood Network is the public access TV station & community media resource center for Manhattan residents &
NYC non-profits.
See MNN.org for more info.

UPROOTED

